Tour colonial Newport, the Ten-Mile Ocean Drive and Bellevue Avenue, with a narration of over 50 mansions by our expert guides. This tour gives an excellent overview of the history of Newport as well as Newport today. Add a mansion tour to the overview for a true taste of the Gilded Age.

You can choose from the most elaborate of all the Newport mansions, The Breakers, summer home of Cornelius Vanderbilt; Rosecliff, the most romantic of the mansions and the setting for many famous films such as "The Great Gatsby" and "True Lies"; Marble House, William K. Vanderbilt's summer residence, highlighted by Lois XIV & XV style furnishings original to the house; The Elms, noted for its classical 18th century French architecture and sunken gardens amidst its beautiful grounds.

Many other attractions are available in Newport and can be added to your tour to meet the interests and studies of your students.
